

Center for Philosophy of Biology

Duke University

www.duke.edu/philosophy/bio/conference.html

Duke Center for Philosophy of Biology

Second Annual Conference
on recent work in Biology and Philosophy

25 years after the Panglossian Spandrels

A Conference on Adaptationism

April 11-13 2003
Duke University, Durham NC

SECOND ANNUAL CONFERENCE APRIL 11-13 2003

Conference held at R. David Thomas Executive Conference Center, Fuqua School of Business, Duke University

Sponsored by Duke's Center for Rethinking Science and Technology (CReST)

No registration fee

Speakers and Panelists will include:

| | | | |
|-----------------------|----------------------------------|-------------------------|---------------------------|
| André Ariew | (University of Rhode Island) | Frederik Nijhout | (Duke University) |
| Robert Brandon | (Duke University) | Mark Rausher | (Duke University) |
| Brian Hall | (Dalhousie University) | Leigh Van Valen | (University of Chicago) |
| Mohan Matthen | (University of British Columbia) | Denis Walsh | (University of Edinburgh) |
| Gerd Müller | (Konrad Lorenz Institute) | | |

www.duke.edu/philosophy/bio/conference.html